

Archive No. 92

Women's Information and Referral Exchange (WIRE)

Way Arcade, 238 Flinders Lane, where the service stayed till the beginning of 1993 when it moved into the newly established Ross House, 247 Flinders Lane for the next decade or so.

For over twenty years WIRE provided a fully funded phone information, support and referral service across a wide range of issues and services for the women of Victoria. In 1999 WIRE opened a Women's Information Centre, a drop-in service at a shopfront at 247 Flinders Lane with free internet and word processing facilities.

In 2005 WIRE moved into the Queen Victoria Women's Centre in Lonsdale Street to continue their service from there.